A study abroad student at the Quinn School of Business, UCD joins the largest business school in Ireland, taking part in all aspects of academic and social life in their extensive campus while experiencing life in the thriving modern European city of Dublin. Today the College has a population of 20,000 students, and is situated at Belfield, about 3 miles to the south of downtown Dublin. Dublin has a population of 1 million people. The campus occupies a beautifully landscaped 350 acre site, which provides a striking setting for the University's complex of teaching and research facilities, student amenities, sports facilities and residences.

Housing

The campus at Belfield provides accommodations for over 1,900 students in three, four and five bed roomed self-catering apartments. These apartments are fully equipped but it is necessary to bring your own "kitchen/tableware" items or to buy them through the Accommodation office. A pillow and duvet are provided, but you must bring your own bed linen, towels etc.

Application Process

Apply online at www.studyabroad.uiuc.edu by February 15th to study abroad the following fall and by September 15th to study abroad the following spring.
