International Programs

Vienna, Austria

Vienna University of Economics and Business Administration

The Vienna University of Economics & Business Administration is one of the oldest schools of business in Europe. Vienna is the historic capital of the Habsburg empire, a melting pot of languages and cultures, and the crossroads between East and West. Salzburg, Prague, Budapest, and Munich are only a few hours away, while a day's train ride takes you to Venice or Paris via the Orient Express.

Approximate Program Dates

Term I

Orientation: Sept. 14–16, 2009

*Instruction: Oct. 1, 2009–Feb. 28, 2010

Winter Break: Dec. 24–Jan. 6, 2010

*You are allowed to take exams early in Vienna just before the start of the UIUC spring semester.

Term II

Ski Week (optional): TBD

Arrival: early February 2010

Orientation: February 12–26, 2010

Instruction: Mar. 1–July 4, 2010

Easter Break: Mar. 29–Apr. 18, 2010

Pentecost Break: May 23–24, 2010

Bruce Murray, a UIUC professor, will conduct orientation and field trips, including a highly recommended ski trip for students studying in Vienna spring semester. There are a large number of courses available to help you learn German.

Housing

The International Studies Center has a number of rooms in five different student residences. There are a small number of single rooms available, but the majority of rooms are double rooms. There is generally a shared kitchen on each floor. A housing coordinator is available to help solve any housing-related issues that may arise.
